"NOT FOR SCHOOL BUT FOR LIFE WE ARE LEARNING"

Topic: Rich Task assessment - Travel Brochure - NZ

Context: Where in the World? - promoting a place to visit

Date: July 2009

Aim: To self evaluate my work against the rubric

	Beginner	Improver	Expert
Information	I have information about some of the activities or places in my brochure.	I have some information about each activity/place in my brochure.	I have clear information about each activity/place in my brochure.
Layout	My text and pictures are close together. There are gaps or blank spaces in my work.	I have attempted to set my text and pictures out well. There are some spaces in it.	My brochure uses every page available. It includes well spaced text and pictures.
Language used in text - including title and Sparkle sentences.	I have attempted a title and a sentence about my location.	My title is clear, but my text does not make my brochure sound like an appealing place to visit.	I have a clear title and exciting words to make my brochure sound appealing to an audience.
The part I am most pleased with is ...
Next time I would try and improve ...
